Avison Young wins prestigious Homes England framework roles

Commercial property agency Avison Young, which has major offices in Brindleyplace, has been appointed to Homes England's new Development and Regeneration Technical Services framework (DaRTS).

The framework will run from 2023 to 2027 and has an estimated value of £200m. It has a two-part lotted structure. Suppliers on Lot 1 will provide 'End to End Technical and Professional Services' and Suppliers on Lot 2 will provide 'Place-making, Masterplanning and Design Services'.

Avison Young has been appointed to both Lots, which means the company will be advising Homes England across both of its major frameworks.

Making men aware of health issues

Brindleyplace has marked Men's Health Awareness Week with a special feature highlighting how men die at higher rates than women because of different lifestyle, biological and social factors.

These include smoking, alcohol and substance abuse, stress, hormones, metabolism, genes, exercise, diet and lack of regular checkups – all factors that result in causes of death that impact more on men.

The top causes of death include heart disease, diabetes, strokes, liver disease, respiratory diseases, cancer, influenza and pneumonia, HIV and AIDS, accidental injuries and suicide because of depression. There are simple actions that men can take - click the link below to find out more.
